Nathan Jarosz (Carl) looks forward to be performing with the Wadsworth Footlighters! Nathan has performed in various shows in his youth at Magical Theatre Company in Barberton. Recently, he has been getting back into theatre and has played both David O. Selznick in Moonlight and Magnolias and Thomas in Making God Laugh at Coach House Theatre in 2018. He also appeared as Pete in Almost Maine at Weathervane Playhouse. Nathan is an Eagle Scout, 2nd degree blackbelt, a youth soccer coach, and a Distinguished Toastmaster. As of December of 2018, Nathan earned a Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership from Malone University. Nathan is the Founder/CEO of Leadership Influencing Teen Empowerment (LITE). LITE is a non-profit organization designed to teach leadership skills to youth.

Kevin Pickard (Doctor Lyman) has made his home and raised his family in Wadsworth for almost 30 years. As a parent of student performers in the Wadsworth schools, much of his time was spent encouraging his children as they performed in plays, musicals, and recitals. After his children eventually all graduated, Kevin auditioned for and had the pleasure of performing in the Footlighters' 2016 production of "The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society's Production of a Christmas." Bus Stop is not only the second play that Kevin has performed in with Footlighters, but also the second play he has performed in within the past 35 years. "I love living in Wadsworth, and I love that we have a local community theatre. Working with the director and cast of Bus Stop has been such a positive and enjoyable experience, that I really encourage everyone to support Footlighters and to find out ways that they can be part of the show both onstage and behind the scenes. I thank my patient and loving wife for all of the encouragement and support she gave as I rehearsed for this show."

Adam's resident theater is Broadview Heights Spotlights, where he is the President of the board of trustees. Finch Fletchley in the Ohio premiere of Puffs, Or: Seven Increasingly Eventful Years at a Certain School of Magic and Magic. When not on working in theater, Adam is the Advertising Specialist at Rakuten OverDrive. Thank you to my fellow castmates and crew for making Bus Stop another wonderful community theater experience. Enjoy the show!

Who's Who - Production Staff

Brenton Cochran (Director) is thrilled to be directing his first production at the Wadsworth Footlighters. Brenton has been directing theatre since 2003 at the age of 15. Several of those years were spent working as a Resident Youth Director with middle school, high school and college students on large scale theatrical productions as well as acting classes and workshops. This marks Brenton's 60th endeavor. Some of his favorite previous directorial credits include "South Pacific", "Funny Girl", "Thoroughly Modern Millie", "Anything Goes", "The Secret Life of Girls", "Gypsy", "Barbecuing Hamlet", "Boeing Boeing" and "Dividing the Estate". He also had the pleasure of musically directing Northeast Ohio's community theatre premiere of "RENT" at the Canton Palace Theatre as well as musically directing "Sweeney Todd", "Chicago", "Spring Awakening" and "The Rocky Horror Show" to name a few. Brenton also worked for several years as an assistant director, choreographer and staging director for Walsh University Genesius Players in various productions including "The Pajama Game", "Elton John and Tim Rice's AIDA", "Little Women the Musical" and "Sweet Charity". He has also been seen onstage. Favorite credits include William Barfee in "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee", Governor Danforth in "The Crucible", Reverend Shaw in "Footloose" and Horton the Elephant in "Suessical the Musical". When not working in the theatre, Brenton spends most of his time working for Tri-Arch, Inc. McDonalds as a General Manager in Twinsburg. He would like to send a special thank you to his fiance Gerard for his endless love and support, his family and friends, the cast for their endless hard work and dedication, Mary who always told me I should do this show, and to the incomparable Elaine Stritch.

SPECIAL THANK YOU TO

Cory Ott for compiling our programs.

It takes a great deal of time, patience and organization to get it all together before publication.

The Wadsworth Footlighter Board for everything they did to make this show possible, from tickets to concessions to just being them!

Mike and Jerri Saltz, Joe Tennant, Cory Ott, and Grace Lutheran Church for helping us step into our diner and making it come to life.

Katie Simón Atkinson, Jill Kenderes, Broadview Heights Spotlights & Akron Design and Costumes for helping our actors and actresses with dressing the part.

Grace Lutheran Church for their continued support of the Wadsworth Footlighters as one of their outreach programs. We are so lucky to have such a wonderful place to practice, hold our productions, monthly board meetings, etc. We appreciate them very much!

The Off Broad Street Players for allowing us to be a part of the performing arts community in Wadsworth, and help with so many things.

Thanks to anyone we may have inadvertently forgot.

Additional THANKS go to so many other individuals, too many to name them all. It takes a great group of wonderful actors, family members and friends, AND a very helpful community to put on a successful production. We personally want to thank everyone associated with this production for their hard work and for saying "YES" when asked to do something. It made our job much easier and a great deal of fun! It takes many people to "get it all together." Special thanks to all!
