Director's Note:

Once upon a time... in a land not so far away (right here, actually), a group of wildly imaginative actors gathered to bring a delightfully twisted fairy-tale mystery to life. Rotten Apples by Tracy Wells isn't your typical "happily ever after." It's part Once Upon a Time, part Clue, and filled with laughter, secrets, and more than a few suspicious characters. And depending on the night, the ending might just surprise you!

That sense of fun and unpredictability is exactly what drew me to this show. Fairy tales have always been about magic and lessons, but this one adds a clever twist - what happens when the storybook characters stop following the script? Sometimes the sweetest apple hides a little mischief beneath the shine.

Our cast and crew poured creativity into every moment, transforming our humble space into a whimsical kingdom with limited resources and unlimited imagination. That's the heart of community theatre - using what we have, working together, and finding joy in the process.

So, sit back and enjoy this fairy tale unlike any other. Whether your ending tonight is happy, hilarious, or just a little rotten, you're in for a treat. Thank you for sharing in the mystery and supporting live theatre - because every good story needs an audience to help uncover the truth.

There are so many individuals/groups that work together to make a successful production.

SPECIAL THANK YOU TO

Grace Lutheran Church for their continued support of the Wadsworth Footlighters as one of their outreach programs.

We are so lucky to have such a wonderful place to rehearse, perform, and call home!

To The Owensby Family, Lindsay Patterson and The Off Broad Street Players at Wadsworth High School for your assistance with the set.

Maria, Sam, and The crew at A-1 Sports Sales for their assistance with our show shirts.

Colin Becker and Corbin Demiter for volunteering their time with lights and sound to make sure all our characters are in the light and music is played on cue.

Cory Ott for compiling our programs. It takes a great deal of time, patience and organization to put it all together before publication.

Kasey Ziska and the cast that dressed up themselves/our actors to look the part.

Kate Schoonover and the scissor happy cutters and gluers that helped with many of the props, set, call board items, and lobby decor.

Barlett Cook Flower Shop for their Rotten inspired flowers.

The footlighter board for helping where needed and helping organize everything.

Five Star Printing for making our programs look amazing.

SPECIAL THANK YOU TO

Anyone and everyone that helped with our promotion events, bought things off our Amazon wishlist, and/or volunteer during the performance to make this show possible.

Thanks to the production staff of Rotten Apples - What GREAT team work!

Thanks to anyone we may have inadvertently forgot.
